Legislation Title:

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Seattle Office of Housing; repealing Section 3.14.750 of the Seattle Municipal Code.

Summary of the Legislation: This legislation repeals the SMC provision requiring the Office of Housing to submit a proposed work plan to Council each year, which must be adopted by Council resolution.

Background:

The requirement for City Council adoption of OH's annual work plan dates from the formation of the Office in 1998. OH must submit a preliminary work plan each October, followed by a revised proposed work plan in January. Council adoption of annual work plans is not generally required of City departments or Executive offices and is no longer necessary for OH. OH's work is guided by the Council-adopted City Budget, Consolidated Housing and Community Development Plan, Housing Levy Administrative and Financial Plan, and provisions of the Seattle Municipal Code.
